Two payment schedules are available to participants, quarterly and monthly. Payments for Contingent Troop participants should be made the first week of the month indicated in the schedule to the Longhorn Council. The payment schedule has been calculated to address deposits and contractual agreements made with the National Jamboree, travel company and vendors.

Make checks payable to the Longhorn Council, Boy Scouts of America. Place the participant's name on the notation line and indicate Jamboree payment. Request a receipt for each payment and retain the receipt for your records. Only cash, check or money orders can be accepted. Longhorn Council can not accept credit card payments.

Payments can be hand delivered or mailed to:

Longhorn Council, BSA
National Jamboree Contingent
PO Box 54190
850 Cannon Dr.
Hurst, TX 76054

or

Longhorn Council, BSA
National Jamboree Contingent
300 Lake Air Dr.
Waco, TX 76710

All Jamboree expenses are arranged and purchased as a package for a Troop of 36 Scouts and 4 adult leaders. All Scouts and leaders with the Council Jamboree Contingent Troops will travel to and from Washington DC and the Jamboree together as a Troop. Special arrangements for using frequent flyer miles and family vacation plans before and after the Jamboree can not be accommodated.
