Are you ready for the ultimate Scout experience? Are you ready to challenge yourself physically, mentally, and emotionally? Are you ready for an unforgettable outdoor experience on the trail? Then you are ready for the 2010 Philmont Backpacking Trek!

Join your Troop 32 friends for an experience of a lifetime on a 10-day backpacking adventure through the Philmont Scout Ranch in northern New Mexico! Learn all the skills necessary to survive and thrive in the wilderness, hone your physical condition as you pack for 60, 70, or even 80 miles, stand on top of the legendary Tooth of Time, see blacksmithing, throw axes, climb spar poles, take horse rides, enjoy fantastic campfires, and maybe even climb to the top of 12, 441' high Mount Baldy and enjoy your achievement and the magnificent view.

Twelve people must make the commitment to attend Philmont in order for the Troop to commit to the trek, so get your friends fired up now!

Completing a Philmont Trek requires dedication and resources. A full deposit of $100 per person is required by the August 25, 2009 Troop meeting to hold your coveted position and further payment of $235 is required by September 14th with the final payment of $285 required by January 26, 2010. In addition, there will be travel expenses to and from Philmont, and gear purchases as well (you are encouraged to borrow equipment from others). All participants will be required to attend a minimum of three 15 mile warm up hikes and, with independent work, will earn the Backpacking Merit Badge. All participants also have to meet physical fitness guidelines in order to begin the trek. There will be no refunds until the twelve person minimum is attained, and then only if another person has been found to pay their full cost.
